

The Center has an open eligibility policy with no geographical or age restrictions.

Clients are self-referred, come to us as a court condition or through referral by other agencies. Referral sources often include but are not limited to schools, mental health professionals, attorneys, DCF, CSSD, Court, or the family.